Signed and dated in the image lower left: Picasso 1948; publisher information lower left: "Composition" by Pablo Picasso S.P. 28 / published by School Prints LTD and printed in Great Britain by W.S. Cowell Ltd. Ferdinand Roten Galleries, Baltimore MD label verso. Notes: The idea behind School Prints Ltd was brilliant and simple. Commission good artists to create original lithographs which would be editioned in very large numbers and sold cheaply to schools. Thus, it would be possible for children in school to enjoy a direct and continuous contact with real works of art. The sheer logistics of the operation, the costly effort of distribution to over 4000 schools, finally ended the great adventure of the School Prints scheme. A further disheartening factor was the expensive flop in 1949 of the magnificent European series, made possible by the plastic portable plates, which, in addition to Moore, featured Matisse, Picasso, Leger, Dufy and Braque.
